The Navy Blue and Red

The Navy Blue and Red waves high overhead,
Our hearts are true to navy Blue,
And Red's the nerve to dare and do
Whenever Richmond calls,
You'll find the boosters there,
To fight! — and win for Richmond Hi,
The gallant Navy Blue and Red.

Foreword

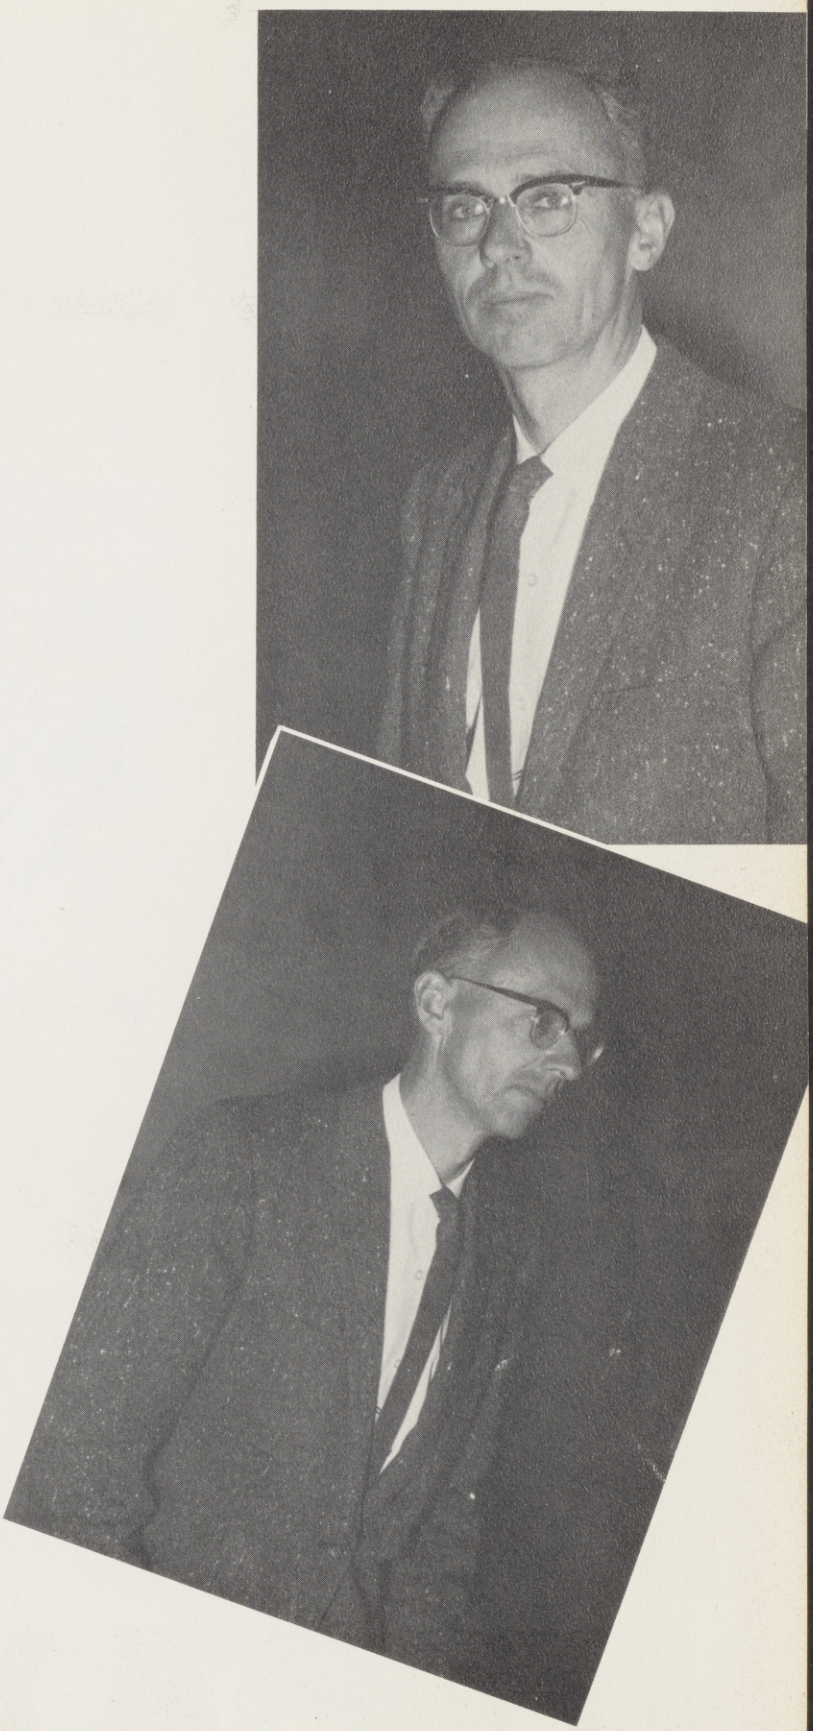
Now that we have reached the end of our school days, brimful of knowledge (as we like to think) and fully instructed, we stand at life's first jumping-off place. The world lies before us, to swallow us or to be our oyster. Fortunately, most of us shall hold the world in abeyance for some years longer, since we are going to college. This prospect, however, has its own problems, filling us with all sorts of mixed feelings. We are proud, scared, eager, hesitant and glad. And why not, we ask, for once again we shall be little frogs in big ponds.

And what ponds! The great and small campuses lie all about us. Green and stately California, and tawny, picturesque Stanford stand out in point of eminence, and many of us find these to be the most attractive. Others of us are drawn by the tranquil byways of Saint Marys or Santa Clara, others by the bustle of San Francisco State, still others by the freshness of the University of the Pacific. And so it goes.

What we do with ourselves in these new and stirring settings will, in large measure, determine the bent of our lives. This is a truism. What delights us more immediately is the fact that we shall be reaching the prime of our youth and the awakening of new intellectual powers. We shall learn, and receive a high polish; we shall play and develop new loyalties. The best of everything seems to await us.

To celebrate this momentous step of our lives, this going to college, the Shield staff has chosen as its theme "The Intellectual Scrimmage," and has adorned the division pages of the Shield with pictures of our prospective colleges, along with the insignia and songs of each. Upon these we can gaze and gloat, think and anticipate. But one thing we can all be sure of: in this new adventure our brains shall have no rest, and our nerves shall be stretched to their utmost. Our heretofore coddled, wheedled, prodded and bossed-around selves shall receive a sound drubbing at the hands of the mild, lofty-browed professors. In short, this newest, last and best intellectual scrimmage shall be the making of us, or else!

Dedication



We have at Richmond Union High a quiet, scholarly man, who is a dynamo of action. We mean, of course, Mr. Murray Hannah. On the studious side, Mr. Hannah can teach practically any subject which fickle fate decrees. At present he is limited to Algebra, Applied Science, and General Math, but in the past he has taught Physics (his best subject) and Biology (his most arduous). On the practical side, Mr. Hannah is head Adviser of our Senior Class. It is this onerous task, so smoothly carried out by Mr. Hannah, which convinces us that Mr. Hannah could lead anything from a choir to an interplanetary expedition, if he had to.

There are, however, other compelling examples of Mr. Hannah's know-how. During World War II he was a lieutenant in the Signal Corps in the Philippines and the South Pacific. At another time he was an engineer for an electrical corporation (where he met his wife, Elinor). Again, he built his house in Berkeley with his own two hands. This last feat he undertook while he was working for his A.B. at the University of California, with the result that the number of years he spent at Cal stretched out to an improbable twelve. But true to form, Mr. Hannah became a Phi Beta Kappa, and his house is both comely and solid (and brightened by his two young daughters, Joan and Dale).

In Mr. Hannah's recreations the same duality of thought and action persist. On the one hand, he loves to plunge himself into the sea of electronics, and on the other, to scud before a spanking breeze in his sailboat, which he keeps at Sausalito. His zest for electronics seems inborn, but his mania for sailing stems from his Sea Scout days in San Francisco, when he grew to know the bay as familiarly as any fish.

From all these things we are convinced that Mr. Hannah, multiplied a thousand times, would advance American education inestimably, just as by himself, he has strengthened the teaching prowess of Richmond Union High. Because we think Mr. Hannah to be the ideal teacher — thorough in his teaching, eminently versed in his subjects, considerate of his students, and also because he has been our excellent Senior Adviser and very good friend, we, the Class of 1961, take delight in dedicating our Shield to him.

Comet Fight Song

Fight, Comets, Fight to win the game —
On, Comets, on with fire and flame —
Comets lead the fight —
Fight for blue and white
Roar on, soar on —
To greater Comet fame!
C.C.C. On to victory —
Fight — Fight — Fight!

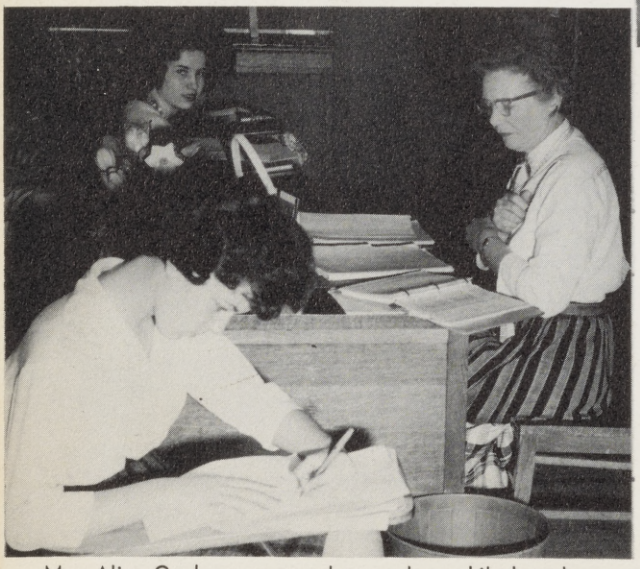
Teachers

The Teachers' rooting section isn't as lively and loud as it could be, but their band is great.

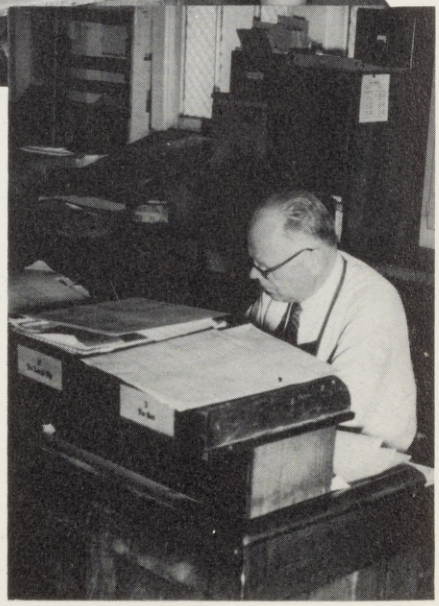
One of the favorite hobbies these teachers have is eating the Cafeteria food.

Students listen to Miss Dorothy Madison's expressive ways of describing their lesson.

Miss Elaine Dale displays a surprised look, while having a class discussion.

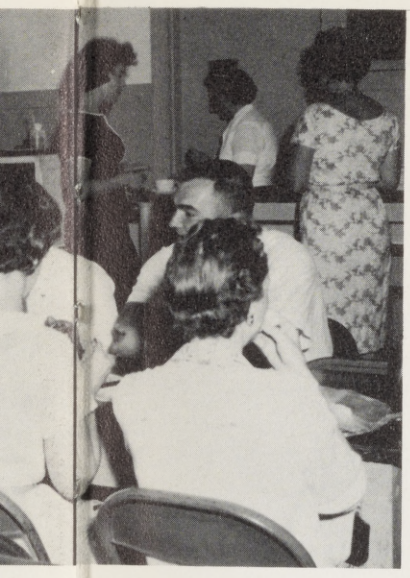


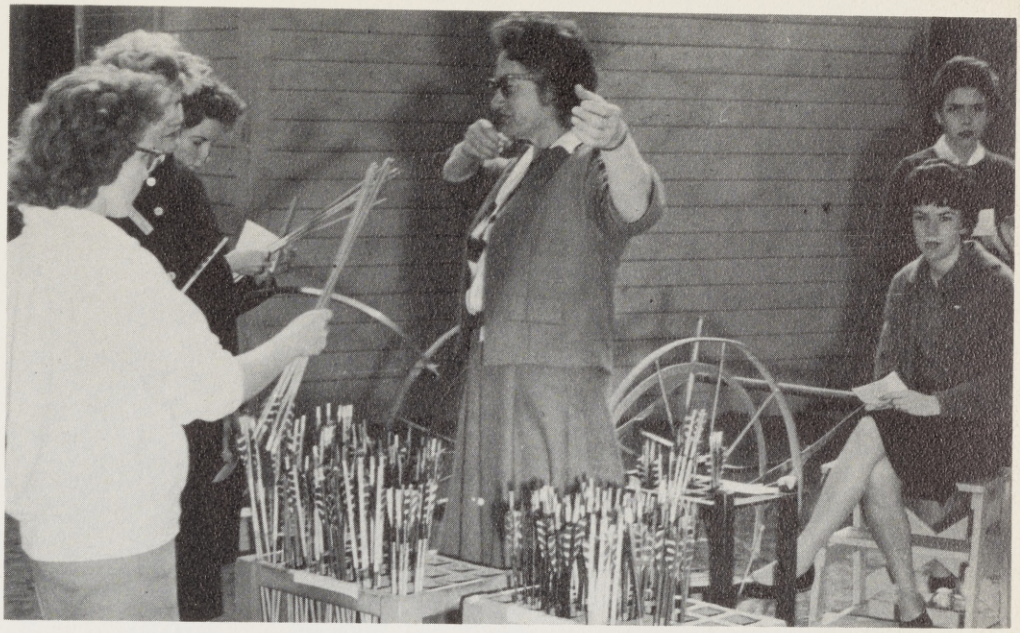
Mrs. Alice Cooke goes over lesson plans while her class is engaged in studying.



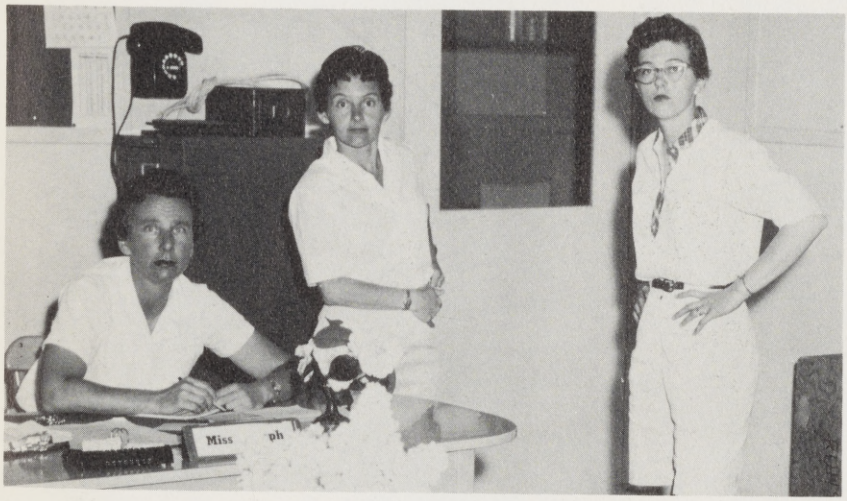
Mr. J. J. McMillian, shop teacher, is hard at work preparing the next issue of the Hi-Nus.

Off-Guard

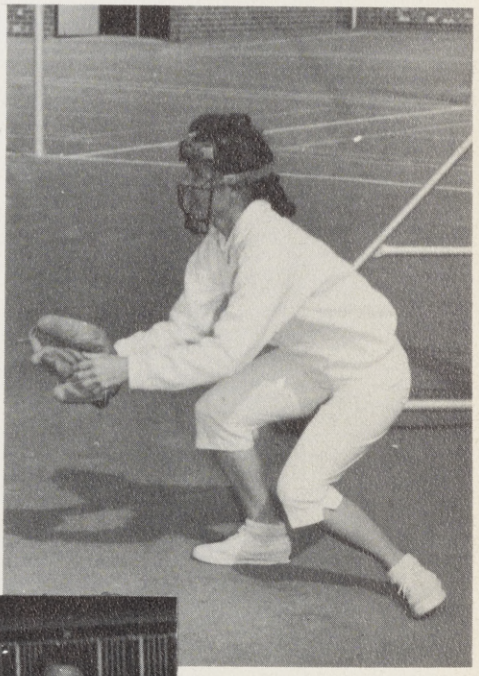




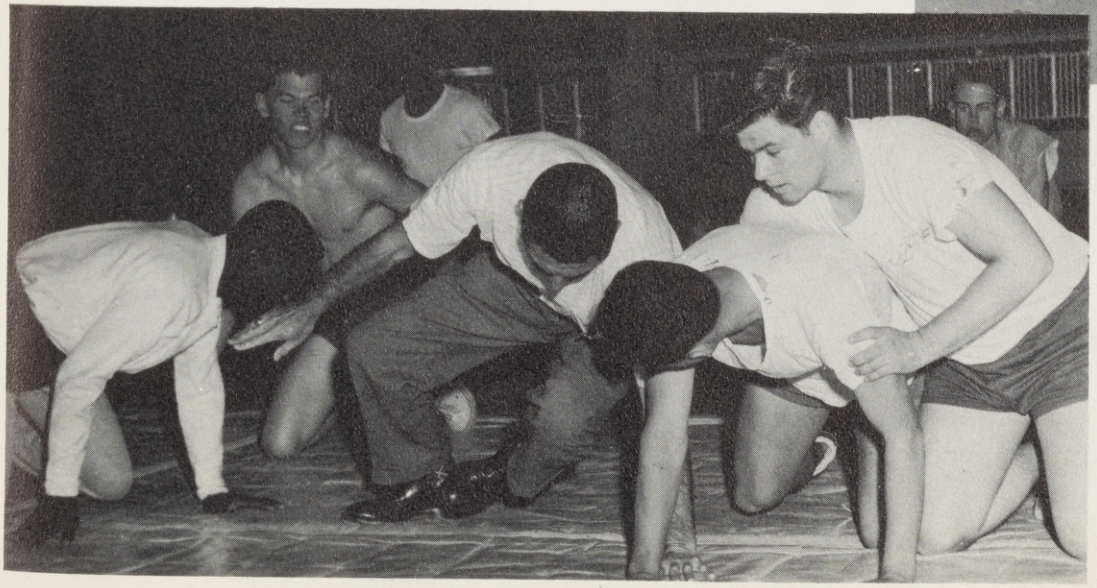
"Be sure you have your hand anchored to your chin," says Mrs. Alice Clark, as she demonstrates proper form in archery.



Physical Education teachers plan next period's schedule.



Miss Betty Wyland is ready for the catch in Softball.

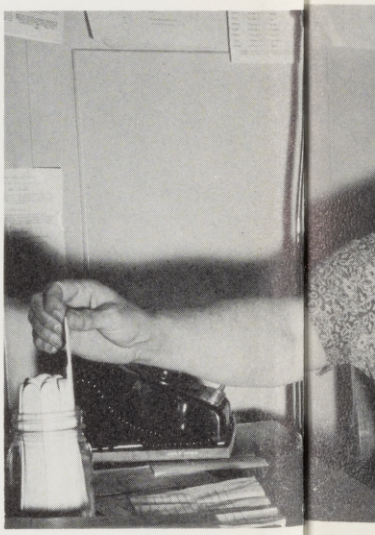


Mr. Carl Mayers shows boys in P.E. the way to wrestle.

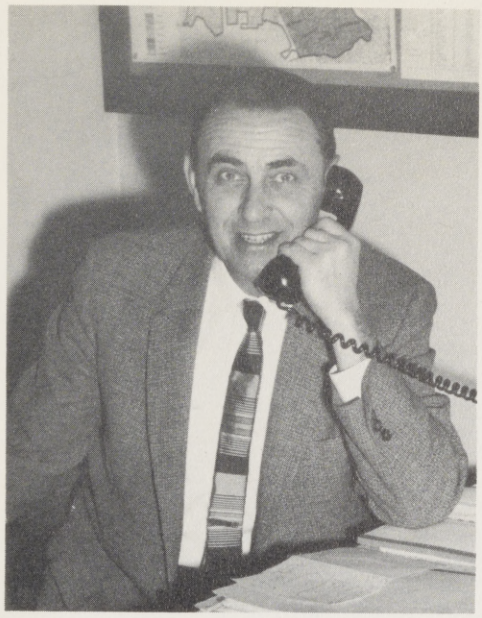
School Personnel

The Clerical Team for Office 5 includes Mrs. Jerry Fairbanks, Miss Lois Smid, Mrs. Sue Johnson, Mrs. Diane Nicholson, and (seated) Miss Mary Gately, Head Secretary.

Who phones to your house when you are absent? Marty Theisen and Winona Andrews in the Deans' Office.



Betty Crocker couldn't cook better than the Cafeteria Staff. Back Row: Mary Clements, Mrs. Evelyn Hopkins, Mrs. Arlene Dahl, Mrs. Lawana Patterson, Mrs. Georgia Hunt, and Mrs. Helen Arnold. Front Row: Mrs. Alice Martin, Mrs. Linda Nevett, Mrs. Maude Erickson, Chairman; Mrs. Ann Wyland, Mrs. Opal Barton, and Mrs. Helen Pike.



"Hello! This is Mr. Zipkin, Child Guidance and Welfare Counselor."

Bookroom Attendant, Mrs. Bess Redick, shows Charles Price the number of repairs needed.

Richmond students will stay healthy as long as Mrs. E. J. Johnston, School Nurse, is on duty.

Compiling the never-ending absence list are Mrs. Leona Strauss and Mrs. Ramona Broberg in Room 1.

Charged with the duty of picking up after students and teachers are the Custodians. Back Row: Mr. Eddie Barton, Mr. Oval Toliver, Mrs. Gerry Goff, and Mr. Joe Rezendes. Front Row: Mr. Ray Scalise, Mr. Andy Colombo, Mr. Abram Ramirez, and Mr. Silvyn Hrbek, Head Custodian.

State Hymn

Hail to San Francisco State
Sing we now our song to thee,
College by the Golden Gate,
Alpha and Omega be.
In Purple and the Gold,
Let thy history be told,
San Francisco,
San Francisco,
On to Victory.

Fight for California

Our sturdy Golden Bear
Is watching from the skies,
Looks down upon our colors fair,
And guards us from his lair,
Our banner Gold and Blue,
The symbol on it, too,
Means fight for California,
For California through and through.

Memories

The June Class of 1961 is leaving Richmond Union High School forever. No longer will our voices ring through its buildings, but let us take one more walk together down the halls before the echoes of the footsteps of the June '61 Class die away forever.

The first step for the 1,061 Sophomores of September, 1958, was to elect class officers. Terry Knapp was elected 1-10 President; David Meiser, Vice-President, and Diane Quintard, Secretary-Treasurer. Barbara Ciucci and Lorinda Jensen were elected Girls' League representatives.

On September 17, the Girls' League held the annual Sophomore Party to welcome the newcomers. Yell leaders for the class were Barbara Burmester and Ernestine Williams. Sue Pierce was the Sophomore majorette.

Showing outstanding ability in Sophomore Football were Roger Martinez, Cliff Greenwood, James Battle, Ura Campbell, and Barry Elison.

For the 2-10 semester, the members of the class elected John Power, President; Bob Baroni, Vice-President, and Peggy Lee, Secretary-Treasurer, as class officers. Sophomore representatives elected to Girls' League were Jeannette Halliday, Lynda Spanner, and Dianne Dias.

"Forget Me Not," the first Sophomore dance, was held January 16, 1959, in the girls' gym. Making the dance a success were Terry Knapp, Shirley Hack, Lorinda Jensen, Diane Swerdferger, Kathy Lehning, and Letha Christian. The Sophomore Class had forty-six students in C.S.F., the honor society.

The "B" basketball squad won first place in the NACAL with three-fourths of the squad Sophomores. Norman Warren, Tony Bowles, and James Moore, all Sophomores, made the Varsity basketball team. Sophomores in the Richmond Union High School's Varsity track team were Ura Campbell, Richard Cavoretto, and James Moore. Roger Martinez and Tony Bowles were outstanding Sophomores in Varsity baseball.

Ending the activities of the Sophomore year was "Swing Softly," the Soph Hop.

Upon entering the Junior year, the Class of '61 elected as 1-11 class officers Barry Elison, President; Horace Fabig, Vice-President, and Dianne Dias, Secretary-Treasurer. Junior representatives for Girls' League were Madonna Coble, Pat Splain, and Barbara Williams. Eileen Lucas was the first in the class to serve on the Board of Commissioners. She was elected Defense Attorney.

Barbara Burmester and Dianne Dias were class yell leaders. Sue Pierce was the class majorette. Eight Junior boys were elected to the Rally Committee. Nineteen Juniors were eligible for C.S.F.. David Jones represented R.U.H.S. at Boys' State in Sacramento.

For the 2-11 semester, the Class of 1961 elected Bob Baroni, President; Richard Cavoretto, Vice-President, and Karen Costa, Secretary-Treasurer. Serving on the Board of Commissioners were Eileen Lucas, Student Judge; Lorinda Jensen, Commissioner of Social Affairs, and Barry Elison, Commissioner of Boys' Athletics. Juniors assisting Eileen in Student Court were Peter Fostiak and Cathy Murphy, Assistant Judges.

Fund raising activities of our Junior Year were the Junior Talent Show, held February 25, 1960, and "Shangri-La," the Junior Prom, held March 19, 1960. Marjo Donaghey was the Prom Queen and Donna Bridges was the queen's attendant.

Six Juniors made the Varsity football team. Outstanding players on the Junior Varsity were Jim Reynolds, Joe Kosich, Rich Lyons, Harold Littlejohn, and Roger Martinez.

James Moore and Donley Thompson outdid themselves in Cross Country. The Junior Cross Country squad came in second place in the City Meet. Leading runners were Neal Snook, Tony Velasquez, and John Avalos.

With five Juniors on the squad, the Varsity basketball team took first place in the NACAL.

The Junior Varsity basketball squad shared second place in the NACAL. Jerry Schneider was the only Junior on the squad.

Roger Martinez, Jim Reynolds, and Tony Bowles all made the Varsity baseball team. Not many Juniors contributed to the Junior Varsity baseball.

Dean Owens, Joe Baca, David Jones, Clayton Holgate, Mark Fowler, and Larry Brusse, all Juniors, made the Tennis squad. Gary Kent was the only Junior to turn out and make the Golf team.

Dale Bright and John Blankenship represented the Juniors in "B" Swimming.

This ends the memories of our Sophomore and Junior years, but in the pages ahead are the most valuable memories of all, our Senior year. The class of 1961 wishes to thank everyone who has contributed in any way with the happiness of our class in the last three years. Again the Class of '61 bids adieu to the good old days at Richmond Union High School.

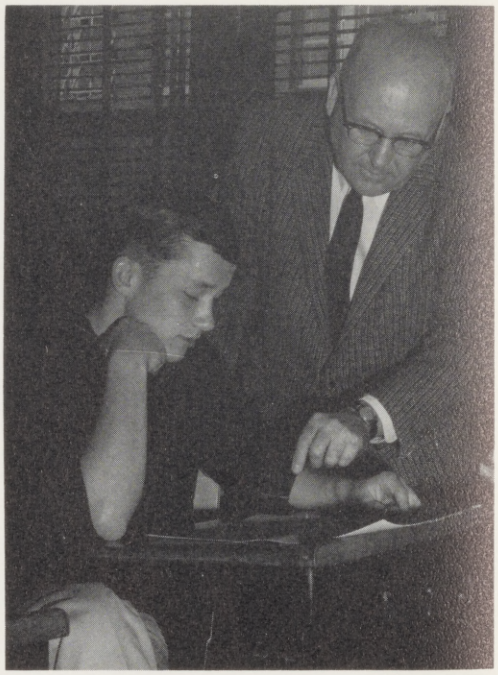
This year's exchange student to Richmond Union High School is Tage Kristensen from Gentofie, Denmark. Tage arrived in Richmond August 6, 1960, and he expects to depart June 22, 1961.

Arriving at his new home, Tage is greeted by his American family, the Warren Stephens'.



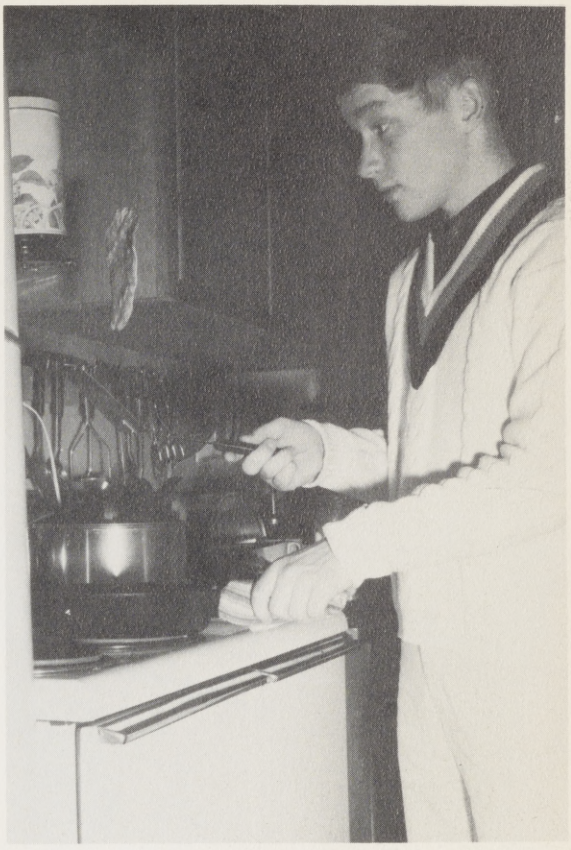
Mr. Hiram Fry points out to Tage his assignment in Civics.

American Field Service Student Exchange Project

Tage is held for the count of three by Warren Jr. and Hayden as Marion referees.

Barbara Yost, R.U.H.S. Exchange Student, smiles happily after her return from a six-month stay in Sweden, as Cherie Ellis and Albert Huerta wonder where they will spend their next summer.

A typical pose for Tage is to be surrounded by girls at lunch time.



Not many people can flip a pancake as skillfully as Tage.

Tage has acquired a typical American teenage habit —talking over the telephone.

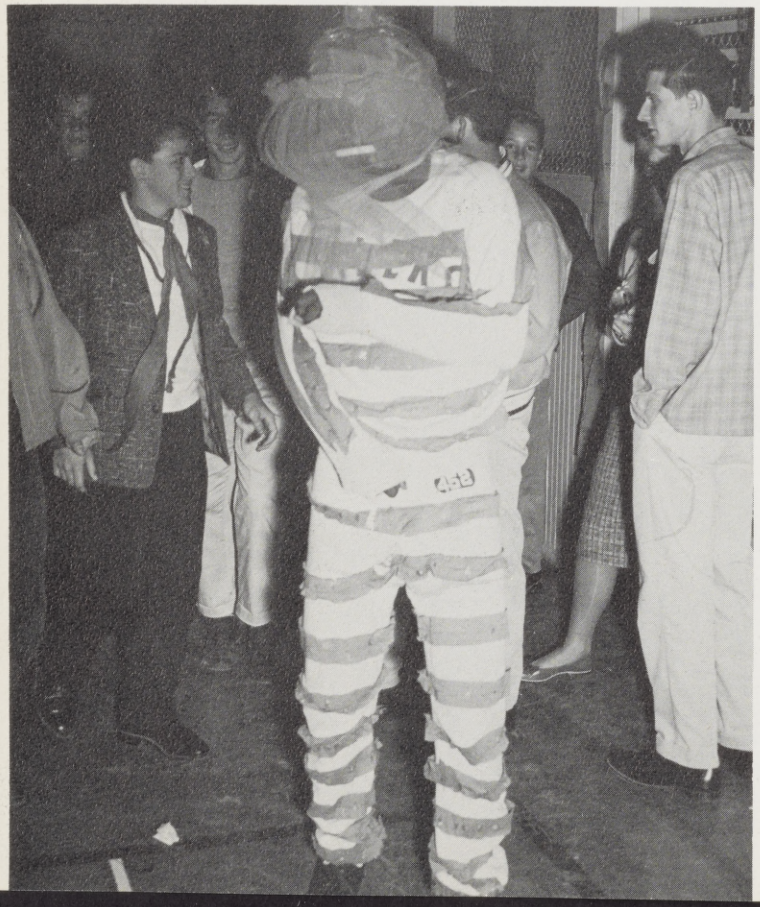
Harvest Moon Dance

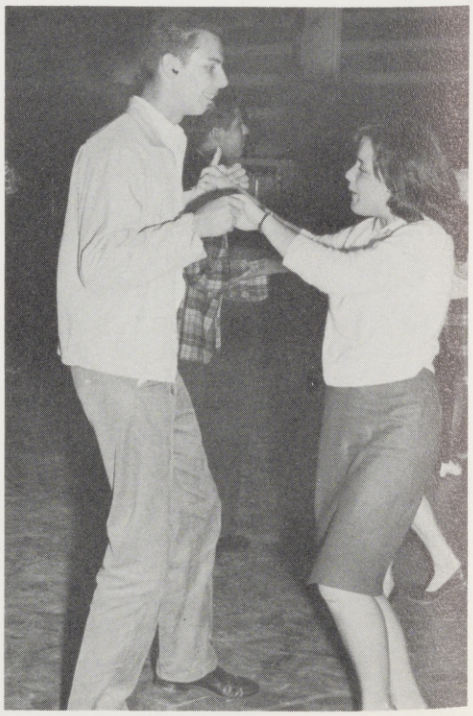
OCTOBER 7, 1960

Eileen Lucas entertains at "Harvest Moon" Dance, sponsored by the Girls' League.

Judy Mapp, winner of Mystery Singer's Contest, displays a surprised look.

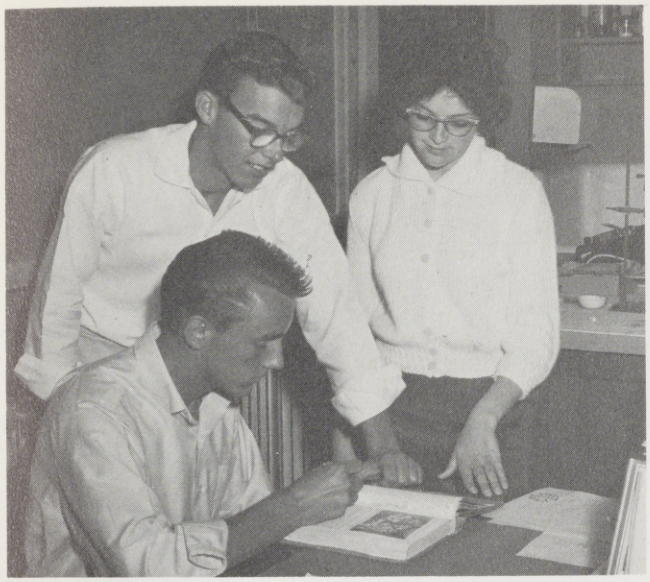
Mystery Singer, Ura Campbell, proves to be a Loyal Oiler.



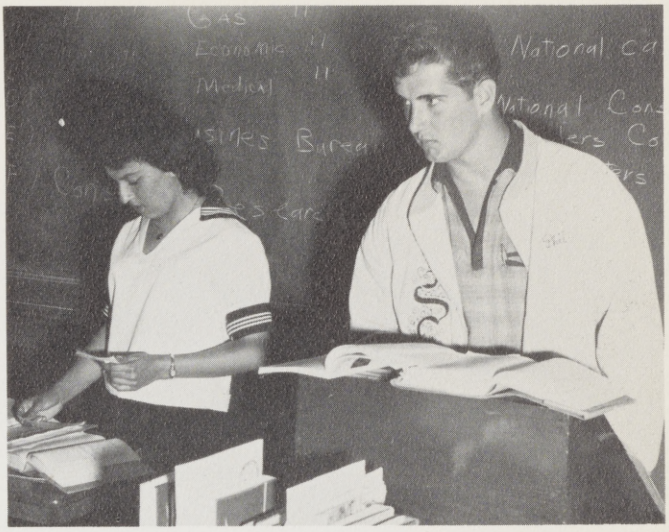


Dix McSween and JoAnne Boulware dance to Ron Cornelius' Band.

Student Day



Jeff Mullenhour, student teacher, explains a Chemistry problem to Don Davis and Jean Corrigan.



Phil Sullins, teacher, quizzes students in Commercial Retailing, while Molly Garcia, assistant, takes roll.

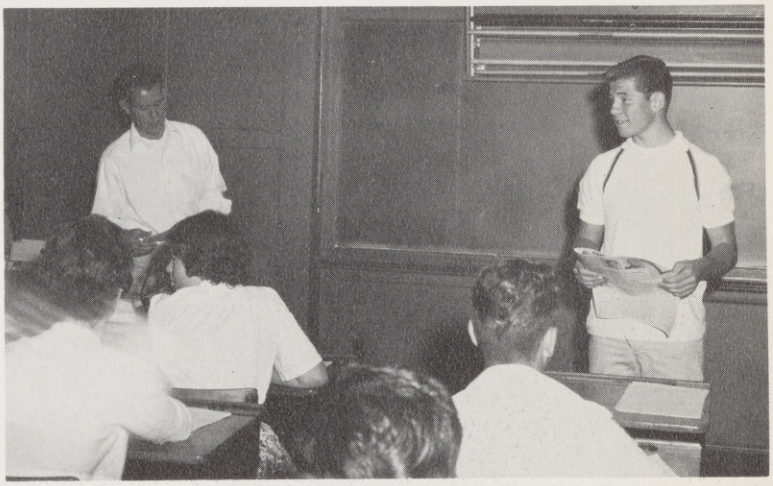
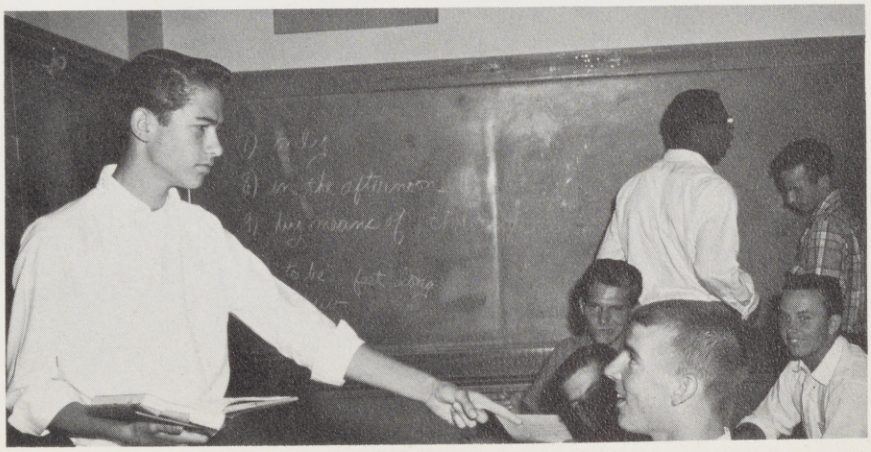
Rene Tanguay lectures to his U.S. History Class on Student-Teacher Day.



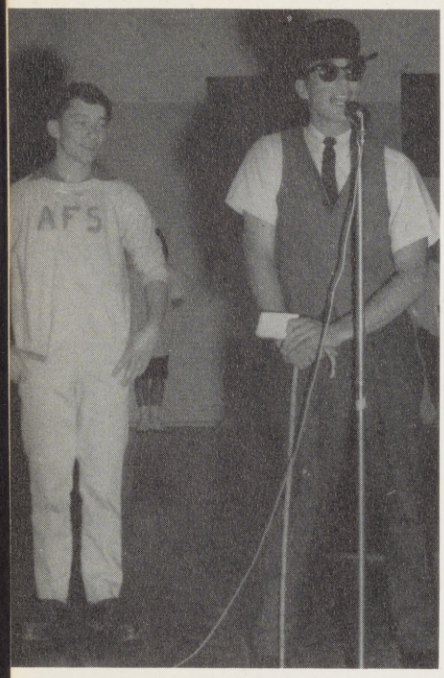
Ron Collins, teacher, and Ted Magee, assistant, ask questions on article U.S. History students read in the American Observer.



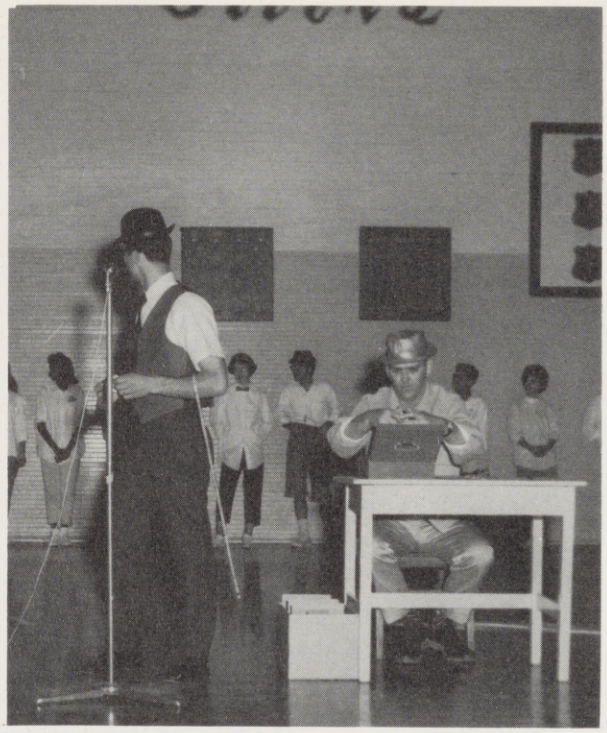
Student teacher, Don Freitas, catches student unaware with question in Spanish.

Slave Day

MARCH 24, 1961



Just in on the boat from Denmark is this fine slave, Exchange Student Tage Kristensen.



Coach Joe Stenson checks to see that the price paid for last slave was right.

Jack Ahart, Sophomore Class President, gives the auctioneer the evil eye as bidding commences.

Slave Day is an annual activity of the Student Body to raise money for the Foreign Exchange program. Members of the Board of Commissioners are auctioned off to the highest bidder. The "slaves" must then follow the orders of their "masters" for the remainder of the day.

A bid for Marjorie Todd is recognized by auctioneer, Bill Belenis.

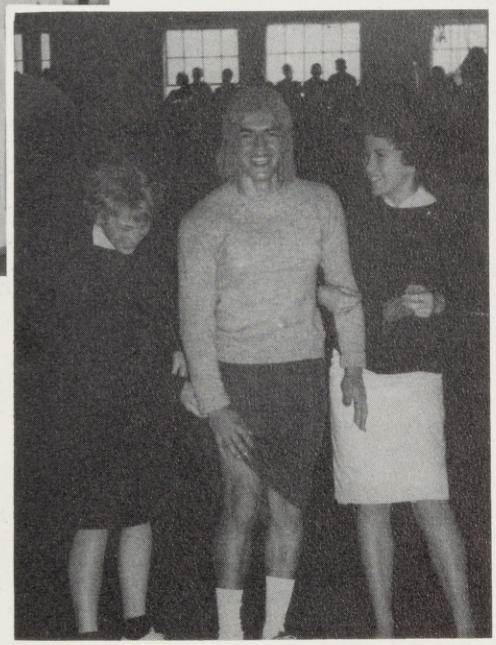
The surprise package is the highlight of the Slave Day auction.



The "surprise," Roger Martinez, displays his lovely knee to his owners, Vivian Planchon and Diane Quintard.

As a good example of Slave Day activity, Marjorie Todd sits on Al Huerta while Sue Mayfield is thrown away by Ray Huerta.

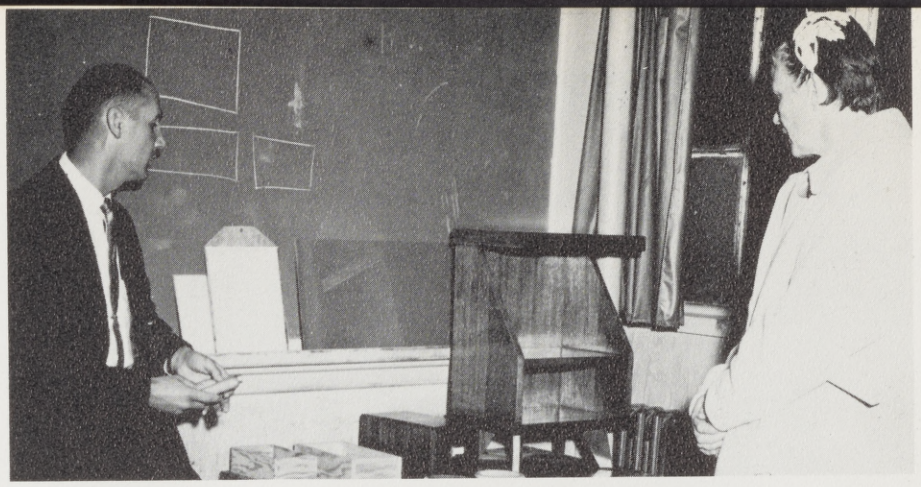
Barbara Stober and Dean Owens assist a lost parent in finding her way to class.

Parents confer together before Mr. Norman's class begins.

Mr. McGinnis describes what is done in Family Living.

After an evening of classes, the parents gather around the PTA refreshment table in the main hall.

October 29, 1960



Mr. Wilbur shows a parent what her son has done in class.

Spanish doesn't seem to be a very interesting subject to these parents.

Family gathers for Christmas: Beatrice Trott, Carol Llewellyn, Joan Huff, and Gerald Moore.

"Home For

Childhood sweethearts, Gerald Moore and Barbara Lewis, discover the Family Album.

Bill McCain tells Kathryne McComish, "You can't walk in the snow with those slippery soles."

"You stay out of this!" Fay Yancey warns Barbara Lewis.

Junior Prom "Blue Rhapsody"

MARCH 15, 1961

Joanne Strzepek, the Junior Queen, and her attendants, Claudia Ellis and Dolores Barroca, were elected by a popularity vote at the Prom. She was crowned by Bob Emerson, Junior Class President.

Couples enter dance through the "Blue Rhapsody" Tunnel.

This couple looks at some of the decorations.

Shown having a good time are these couples who relax during intermission.

The Queen, Joanne Strzepek, reigned over the Junior Prom and was presented with a trophy.

There were many people who attended the Prom held in April.

All the devoted Sadie Hawkins Day followers bring their men to the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance.

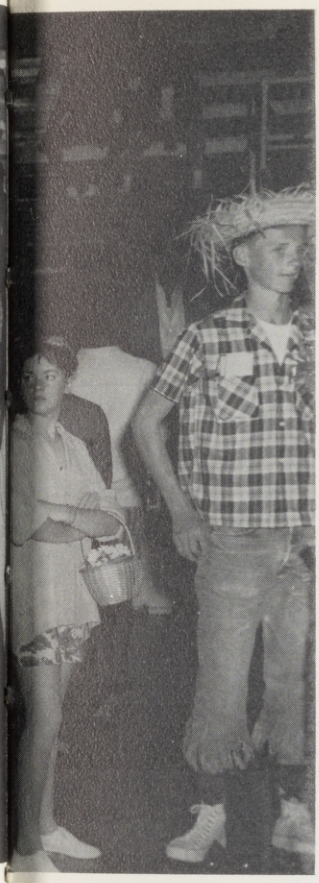
Sadie Hawkins Dance

APRIL 7, 1961

Gay Cleveland let herself in for something when she latched on to Ron Scott, Shield Photographer.

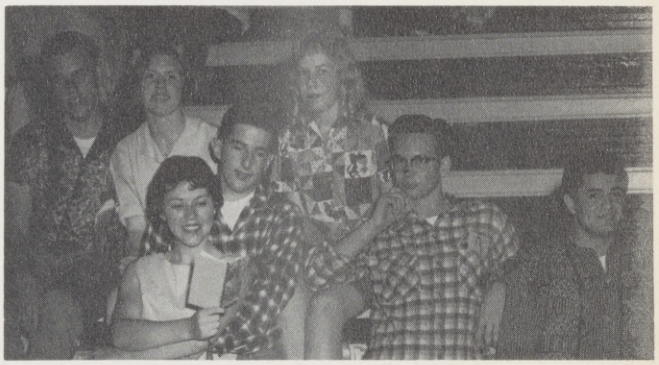
A man caught under the rules and regulations of Sadie Hawkins gets sentenced to life by a Marryin' Sam.

This girl looks about as happy as a hound dog with a soup bone.



Well, Mr. and Mrs. Scarecrow have company again this year.

These couples relax during the intermission.



It looks as if these couples are enjoying themselves.

Look at the camera and say cheese.

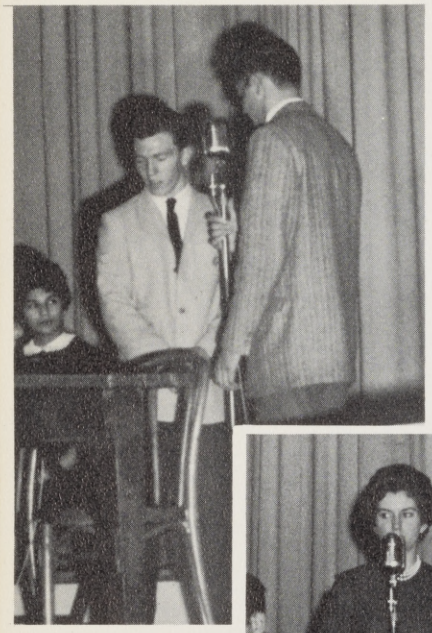
Installation

FEBRUARY 3, 1961



Robert Dodge listens as Barry Elison explains the duties of RUHS' highest office.

"Your job will not be all social," says retiring Social Chairman, Diane Quintard, to Margaret Head.

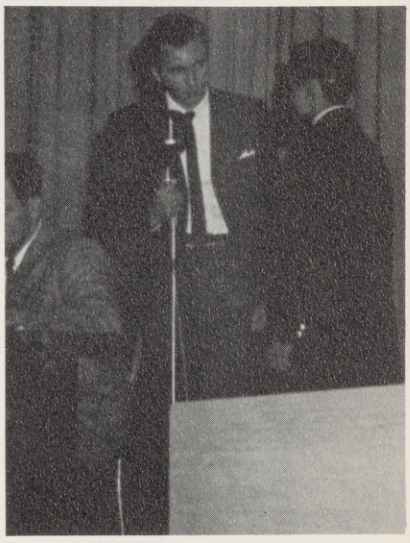
Robert Dodge issues his first order as S.A. President, "You're dismissed to your next class."

"I do hereby solemnly swear . . ." Barry Elison administers the oath of office.

After the oath of office, the lighted candles are used to symbolize the beginning of a new term.

Fran Sullivan explains to David Jones that he must defend the accused in the Student Court.

The many duties of the Treasurer are explained by David Meiser to his successor, Sue Mayfield.



Ray Huerta learns from Dean Owens that the job of Vice-President entails more than being a substitute for the President.

"As Commissioner of Law and Order," states Rosie Alcala to Marjorie Todd, "you will see to it that all RUHS laws are enforced."

Victory Song

On to Victory!
The Red and Blue shall win today;
From Moraga's Hills,
Our team is ready for the fray,
When we've won the game,
Throughout the land will

Fight For Santa Clara

Varsity fight for Santa Clara,
Banners of Red and White on high,
No matter how great your foe men,
Let your motto be "To do or die,"
Rah! Rah! Varsity men,
We are cheering for you,
Our gallant heroes, sturdy staunch and true;
Remember the right and might of Red and White
When Santa Clara warriors fight
For vict'ry and our dear old S. C. U.

Victory Song

On to Victory —
We're going to win today —
here's why
For the Green and Gold —
the Dons are
Going into do or die.
Win the game today,
We're going to try and try
the same old way;
And with all our might,
We're going to fight,
fight, — (Rah)
Fight, fight, fight — (Rah)
On to Victory.

TIGERS

Hungry Tigers

Come on, you Hungry Tiger, Fight! Fight! Fight!
Let's have that goal, you Tigers,
Fight! Fight! Fight!
See those Tigers breaking through
After goals, they'll get them, too;
Fighting for U.O.P., they're after victory.

Then Hail, O Hail, the Orange and the Black,
See those banners gleam.
We'll shout their fame, for they'll win the game,
They're a fighting Tiger team.
